Investment Objectives

LIQUIDITY (M)	The ability to quickly and easily convert to cash (cash or cash equivalent) all or a portion of the investments with little or no risk of loss.
SAFETY (X)	You want to preserve the initial principal in the account; minimizing risk is of primary importance.
INCOME (B)	You want to establish a source of periodic income. A small part of the portfolio could be in high quality income producing equity in order to counteract the effect of inflation.
GROWTH (G)	Your investment objective is capital growth. Your portfolio can tolerate greater changes in market value in order to potentially increase the market value of your assets, but 100% of the portfolio should not be invested in high risk trading strategies.
SPECULATIVE (S)	You want to maximize the eventual return on your capital by investing all or most of your portfolio in high risk securities and/or trading strategies. You accept higher volatility of your investment returns.

Risk Tolerance Linked to your willingness and ability to accept risk and absorb investment losses.

LOW RISK [L]	I want to preserve my initial principal in this account, with minimal risk, even if that means this account does not generate significant income or returns and may not keep pace with inflation.
MEDIUM RISK [M]	I am willing to accept some risk to my initial principal and tolerate some volatility to seek higher returns, and I understand I could lose a portion of the money invested.
HIGH RISK [H]	I am willing to accept high risk to my initial principal, including high volatility, to seek high returns over time, and understand that I could lose a substantial amount or potentially all of the money invested.

National Instrument 54-101 Equity Accounts Only

Explanation to Clients: Based on your instructions, the securities in your account with us are not registered in your name but in our name or the name of another person or company holding on our behalf. The issuers of the securities in your account do not know the identity of the beneficial owner of these securities.

We are required under securities law to obtain your instructions concerning various matters relating to your holding of securities in your account. We enclose a client response card that allows you to provide us with those instructions. Please complete and return the client response card to us at your earliest convenience.

Disclosure of Beneficial Ownership: Information Securities law allows issuers and other persons and companies to send materials related to the affairs of the issuer directly to beneficial owners of the issuer's securities if the beneficial owners do not object to having information about them disclosed to the issuer or other persons and companies. Part 1 of the client response card allows you to tell us if you OBJECT to the disclosure by us to the issuer or other persons of your name, address, securities holdings and preferred language of communication.

If you DO NOT OBJECT to the disclosure of your beneficial ownership information, please mark the first box on Part 1 of the form. In those circumstances, you will not be charged with any costs associated with sending securityholder materials to you.

If you OBJECT to the disclosure of your beneficial ownership information by us, please mark the second box in Part 1 of the form. If you do this, all materials to be delivered to you as a beneficial owner of securities will be delivered by us. We are permitted under National Instrument 54-101 to charge your account for the costs we incur in delivering this material to you. Please contact us for details.

Receiving Securityholder Materials: Securities law allows issuers and other persons and companies to send materials related to the affairs of the issuer directly to beneficial owners of the issuer's securities if the beneficial owners do not object to having information about them disclosed to the issuer or other persons and companies. You have the right to receive proxy-related materials sent to registered securityholders by reporting issuers in connection with securityholder meetings; among other things, this permits you to receive the necessary information to allow you to have your securities voted in accordance with your wishes at a securityholder meeting. In addition, reporting issuers may choose to send other securityholder materials to beneficial owners, although they are not obliged to do so.

Securities law permits you to decline to receive securityholder materials. The three types of material that you may decline to receive are:

- (a) proxy-related materials, including annual reports and financial statements, that are sent in connection with a securityholder meeting.
- (b) annual reports and financial statements that are not part of proxy-related materials; and
- (c) materials that a reporting issuer or other person or company sends to securityholders that are not required by corporate or securities law to be sent to registered holders.

Part 2 of the client response card allows you to tell us what materials you wish to receive.

If you want to receive ALL materials sent to beneficial owners of securities, please mark the first box on Part 2 of the enclosed client response card. If you want to DECLINE to receive the three types of materials referred to above, please mark the second box in Part 2 of the card.

Preferred Language of Communication: Part 3 of the client response card allows you to tell us your preferred language of communication (English or French).

Electronic Delivery of Documents: Electronic delivery of documents may be available with your consent. If you wish to receive electronic delivery when it is available, please request a consent form from your broker.

Contact: If you have any questions or want to change your instructions in the future, please contact Generic IB. If you wish to change your instructions, you must do so in writing.
